

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Janis Wong, media relations
The Kohala Center
jwong@kohalacenter.org
direct: 808-325-1114, office: 808-887-6411

Dig In! Slow Food community school garden workday

KAMUELA, Hawai‘i—September 2, 2010—Slow Food Chapters across the nation are reaching out to our communities to get some work done! This volunteer workday and potluck from 8:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturday, September 25, helps to support Hawai‘i Island school gardens. Bring gardening gloves, clippers, a potluck dish, and your own plates, napkins, and utensils.

RSVP to one of these school gardens near you:

- Honoka‘a High School, Manuel Jadulang, manuel\_jadulang@notes.k12.hi.us
- The Mala‘ai Culinary Garden of the Waimea Middle School, Amanda Rieux, alethea@hula.net
- Kealakehe High School, Donna Sonnenberg, dlsonnenberg@gmail.com
- Kona Pacific Public Charter School, Barrow Hutchison, barrowhutchison@yahoo.ca
- Kohala Elementary School, Koh Ming Wei, kohmingwei@gmail.com
- Innovations Public Charter School in Kona, Krista Donaldson, kristajoin@gmail.com

For more information, contact Nancy Redfeather, Hawai‘i Island School Garden Network program director, nredfeather@kohalacenter.org or 322-2801. For information about the Hawai‘i Island School Garden Network, see www.kohalacenter.org/HISGN/about.html.

-30-